PRAISE TO THE LORD, THE ALMIGHTY

INTRODUCTION:

Tonight we share our gratitude for the many blessings the Lord has given to us. We are grateful for the blessings of freedom to worship as we choose.

We are immensely thankful that the fullness of the gospel of Jesus Christ was restored to the earth through the Lord's servant, Joseph Smith, Jr.

We are grateful for the scriptures and for all those who sacrificed much that we might have the word of the Lord in our lives today.

We humbly express our love and gratitude to the Lord for a living prophet and apostles on the earth to teach us truths and help guide us back home.

So tonight, we joyously sing together—

- To the latter-day ministry of the Jesus Christ, for whose glorious second coming we eagerly await.

We sing—

- To the memory of the Prophet Joseph Smith, the Lord's anointed restorer of truth, who, by the grace of our Savior, laid the foundation for the establishment of the kingdom of God in these times.

We sing—

- Of our present-day Prophet, Thomas S. Monson, who continually reminds us of our duty to keep the commandments; of the Savior's love for us and ultimately where we desire to be throughout the eternities.

We sing—

- Of Jesus Christ's love and His atoning sacrifice and resurrection for all of us, and we look steadfastly to His glorious second coming.

I KNOW MY FATHER LIVES

NARRATOR 1: Our ultimate goal is to return back home to our Father in Heaven and our Savior, Jesus Christ. In this return we desire to be together with our earthly families. What a blessing this will be and what a great knowledge this is to us today as we strive to do what is right

FAMILIES CAN BE TOGETHER FOREVER

LOVING FAMILIES

NARRATOR 2: In Amos 3:7 we read, “Surely the Lord God will no nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets.” We are so grateful to have a prophet on the earth at this time to help us succeed in this mortal experience and to help prepare us to valiantly return home.

CLOSING REMARKS: In closing tonight, we testify the things we have heard and sung this evening are true—that truth has been restored to the earth again.

We testify that Jesus is the Christ, the Savior and Redeemer of the World.

We testify that we have a loving Father in Heaven who desires for all his children to return back home.

We testify that families are of great importance and through the proper authority can be together for time and all eternity.

We testify that Joseph Smith did indeed see what he said he saw and did restore truth and did in fact translate the Book of Mormon which is a second witness of the Lord, Jesus Christ.

We testify that we have a living prophet and apostles upon the earth today.

We also testify that same Jesus who came in the meridian of time, born in a humble stable in Bethlehem; who suffered for our sins in Gethsemane and died on the cross at Golgotha; who arose on the third day, will come again in great power and glory to redeem his people. We love Him, we worship Him and we look steadfastly for His return.
